

i-tec USB-C/USB-A Metal 2.5Gbps Ethernet Adapter

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Modern, ultra-fast network adapter, which will provide your laptop, tablet or computer with a USB-C/USB-A or Thunderbolt™ 3/4 port with an easy, quick and reliable connection to a company network and the Internet. The adapter can run at 10/100/1000/2500 Mbps so that you can comfortably enjoy a high-speed Internet connection without any interruptions. The adapter requires no external power supply and supports a wide range of operating systems from Windows and macOS to Linux. Also enables Ethernet connection on Android. The adapter is designed for running at maximum speed long term and its high-quality heat protection lends it a projected service life of 60+ months. In addition, its metal casing protects the adapter from damage and scratching.
